REVIEW

Of Spring Athletics

Shows Baseball, Track, Have Enjoyed Good Seasons.

Tennis, Golf Players Encounter Series of Reverses.

Large Squads Participate in All Sports; Tennis Threw Indoor.

Baseball and track have led the way in spring sports played at St. Xavier College this spring. A review of the athletic program during the spring months shows that the tennis and golf teams have suffered some hard knocks in match play with other colleges.

St. Xavier has been victorious in three of the four baseball games played this year. All of the diamond contests have been played away from Cincinnati because of reconstruction work at the home grounds.

Coach Joe Meyer's baseball team has defeated Michigan State, the University of Minnesota and Centre College. The University of Dayton Flyers won from the Musketeers. The baseball squad for the season includes: Captain Douglas Sanders, Ed Hedges, Kenney Schaefer, Tim Daugherty, Bill Cline, Paul Cain, Bob Koeck, Bob Edbrook, Joe Bartlett, Cleo Schaefer, Ed Tapp, Bob Otto, Dave Harmon, John White, Ed O'Hara and Ambrose Fullman.

Although no dual meets were scheduled for the St. Xavier track team, Coach Tim Schaefer's athletes showed good form in the Ohio Relays and the Ohio conference meet at Oberlin. Besides Captain Jack Mahony the track men who scored points for St. Xavier were Bob Brand, Frank O'Bryan, Hal Stotabery and Fred Grant.

Others Win One Meet

In golf the Musketeers won one of three matches. Captain Hugh "Spik" Cline and his mates met three stiff opponents in Kenyon, Detroit and Indiana. Captain Cline and his brother Bill carried the burden of the golf play for the Musketeers. Others on the golf squad were Bill Richmond, Jack Mulvan, Jerry Leubben and Omer Bock. The team was coached by Dr. Wesley L. Furest. The home match with Detroit was played at the Midwestern links through the courtesy of the club management.

Tennis fared very poorly at St. Xavier as the Musketeers were unable to take a single match. Loss of veteran material from last year made the Musketeers so weak on the courts that the team was forced to bow in defeat to Vanderbilt, Kentucky State, Butler and Indiana.

Captain Bill Cline was unable to retain his singles crown in the Ohio tourney but managed to be runner-up. Others on the tennis squad were "Spik" Cline, Chauncey Sommerman, Lloyd Daddens, Tom Zupilet and George Winter. Dr. Furest coached the team.

Construction of indoor clay courts at the field house during the Ohio tourney was one of the foremost steps made in local tennis circles in years. The courts are believed to be the only ones on clay indoors in this section.

Seniors and other students who do not plan to return to school next year are urged to subscribe for the News. Name and address may be sent with Joseph J. McGowan, business manager.

To its fellow publication "The Musketeer" the News extends best wishes for the best around in the history of the college.

VORWOLDT BEST DEBATER

In Contest Between Sophomores On Merits Of Jury System

Eugene Vorwoldt was named best speaker in the sophomore class debate held last Wednesday in the Mary G. Lodge Reading Room of the college library. The debate topic was "Resolved that the Jury System be Abolished". Rev. Edward J. Carrigan, S. J., professor of English, was critic judge. Father Carrigan awarded the decision to the affirmative team composed of Vorwoldt, William Richmond, Jr., and Lloyd Daddens.

Members of the negative team were Bernard Phelan, Myrl Meyer and George E. Winter. The debate outlined the year's program of the public speaking classes of Rev. J. J. Sullivan, S. J.

Dr. A. John Groat, former member of the St. Xavier College faculty, is the proud father of a baby boy. Dr. Groat is now affiliated with Duquesne University, Pittsburgh, Pa.

ED GEISER

Is Elected Sodality Prefect.

Five Other Officers Chosen by Members; Make Plans for Two Conventions.

Edward J. Geiser, '30, Oberlin, has been elected prefect of the Sodality at St. Xavier College according to results of student balloting made known yesterday by Rev. Edward J. Morgan, S. J., moderator of the sodality. Geiser succeeds Paul D. Cain.

Other officers chosen for the 1929-30 season are: Edward Tapp and Robert Eghere, assistant prefects; Robert Elbrook, secretary; Edmund D. Doyle, medal bearer; and Thompson Willett, secretary of the membership committee.

Geiser will direct plans for student participation in sodality conventions to be held at Loyola University, Chicago, and Catholic University, Washington, D. C., late in June.

The sodality program at the college has been expanded largely during the past year through the efforts of the officers in conjunction with Father Morgan. Receipts of sodality collections are used to aid the mission cause in India.

MAY FETE

Gives Way To Commencement

On St. Xavier Calendar; Executives Thank Workers Who Made Enterprise a Success.

With the fifth annual May Fete and Campus Week program of St. Xavier College a closed house, preparations are under way for the eighty-ninth annual commencement exercises to be held in the college field house Friday, June 14. The May Fete management announced that a victory rally dinner will be sponsored at a downtown hotel in the near future to celebrate the success of the enterprise that will allow for an expanded athletic program.

The fete attracted thousands of Cincinnatians to the Avondale campus for the three-day program. Campus inspection was held daily. The biology building now nearing completion was the main point of attraction for a good proportion of the fete guests. The building, being erected at a cost of $120,000, will be finished within several weeks and will be fully equipped by September to allow for a first-class pre-medical course.

Rev. Robert F. Brockman, S. J., College President, expressed his personal thanks to Cincinnatians for the interest shown in the campus development at the college. Father Brockman reported that it is the aim of the Board of Trustees to erect a building a year on the Avondale campus until the full needs of the college are met.

The commencement program to be held at the college field house will be open to the public. Governor Myers V. Cooper will deliver the main address. Father Brockman will make his annual report at the commencement exercises.

The fete management wishes to extend thanks to all who aided in making the enterprise a success. The co-chairman for the fete were Nicholas E. Browne, Herbert Meekin and J. J. Sullivan.

SCHMIDT HEADS FROSH

Andrew J. Schmidt, Reading, was re-elected president of the freshmen class Monday. The freshmen student council members were not yet named at press time.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

The Advertising Staff consisting of Thomas Hughes, Manager; Jack Mulligan, Assistant Business Manager; Myrl Meyer, Phil Owens, Ray Fellman, Bill Richmond and George Sanders also established a high record. Number of subscribers exceeds any previous year. Out-of-town as well as local firms are represented in the advertising section of the book. The general plan of the business staff of the publication was directed by Robert G. Melrine.

THIRD PLACE

Is Lot of Xavier Warriors

At Ohio Conference Meet; Captain Mahony Wins Two First Places In The Dash.

With a team of only four men, St. Xavier succeeded in beating eleven numerically superior squads and took third place in the Ohio Conference Big Six championship meet at Oberlin Saturday. Coach Tom Murthy had no substitutes in many of the events, but his charges played in every one in which they took part.

Jack Mahoney, St. Xavier captain, won the 220 and 100 yard dashes, taking both of these sprints from Jim Barnes, of Oberlin, who won them last year. Mahoney's time of 0:28.8 in the hundred and 0:23.3, preme great things for him in future competition. Bob Brand, sophomore star, was fourth in both dashes.

Frank O'Bryan led for first place in the pole vault, reaching the height of twelve feet, five inches. He was second in the 120 yard high hurdles. Hal Stotabery was fourth in the shot put.

Oberlin won the meet, Wooster being a close second. The other schools which participated were Case, Mt. Union, Akron, Heidelberg, Ohio Northern, Capital, Elmhurst, Muskingum, Otterbein, Kenyon and Western Reserve.

HOMECOMING

Alumni and members of the senior class of the college will engage in an athletic program at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of homecoming day. Baseball, tennis and several other sports are slated for the program. Williams, M. O'Brien, senior class president, is in charge of student participation in the program.

All students to be graduated from the college at the eighty-ninth annual commencement exercises, Friday, June 14, will be guests of honor at a dinner to be held at 5:30 o'clock the evening of June 10 at the college dining hall. Following the dinner the graduates will be received into the alumni association.

VAUGHAN

Wins Philophaedian Post

Four Other Officers Are Named By Members.

Daddens Retires from Office After Successful Year.

Roster of Organization Increased During Past Season, Report Shows.

Members of the Philophaedian debate society of St. Xavier College named Francis J. Vaughan, Louisville, Ky., president of the organization for the 1929-1930 season. Vaughan served as secretary of the debate club during the past year. He has been a member of the reception committee for visiting debaters during the past year and has presided at several intercollegiate debates.

Louis G. Boah was named vice president of the society. William Kirschner will serve as secretary of the club next year. Edward P. Vanderthorn is the new treasurer of the society. Debate topics for the next year will be decided upon by Albert J. Worst, chairman of debates.

Anthony T. Deddens is the retiring president of the Philophaedian society. The society enjoyed a very successful season under Deddens' leadership.

Rev. Edward J. Carrigan, S. J., served as faculty moderator for the debate society during the past year. The membership of the society was larger than ever before during the 1928-1929 season. Meetings of the club will be resumed in September.

COLLEGE BASEBALL PLAYERS

Have Opportunities In Big League

Kopf Says At "X" Club Luncheon

"A hard working college baseball player will find the way to the top in the big leagues comparatively easy," said Larry Kopf, former Cincinnati Red player who addressed the monthly meeting of the St. Xavier Varsity "X" Club at a luncheon Thursday at the Metropolitan Hotel.

"Frank Fritsch, the Fortuham Dash, is an example of what a college player may accomplish in the big leagues. The major leagues are becoming more and more dependent upon the college teams of the country as a supply house for their line-ups," Kopf said.

Leo V. DuBois, president of the club, was hostmaster. DuBois announced that no meetings of the club would be held during the summer season. The meetings will be continued in September.

Morgan W. Williams, president of the St. Xavier College Alumni Association, addressed the club on behalf of the May Fete program which opened at the college field house last night and which continues until tomorrow night. The "X" club will manage a special booth at the fete.

A standard "X" pin was adopted. The pin may be worn by all members of the club. Information on the pin may be secured from DuBois.

The junior class named Franklin Skaine, Edward Hoban, Edward Geiser and William J. Franks to the student council. Doyle is an ex-officio member of the council group. All of the councilmen-elect have been active in the academic and extra-curricular program of the college.

THE NEWS' PROGRAM

FOR A GREATER ST. XAVIER

A Greater and Stronger Alumni Association.
Better Inter-departmental Co-operation.
An All-College Newspaper.

Our Parting Words

The NEWS joins in congratulating the Senior Class. The record of the Class of '29 shows a successful participation in all that the College has offered during the past four years. The victories of its individual members in all activities has given it undisputed claim to being among Xavier's representative classes. To be deemed worthy of the "sheep-skin" is in itself an impressive feat to the undergraduates who see that far-off goal beyond the barrier of hard work and worry.

The men of '29 will find further expression for their spirit and devotion, as members of the Alumni Association. Adherence to that organization will do much to preserve those friendships and acquaintances with fellow-classesmen who are all worthy to remain friends throughout life. It will also be a means to maintaining a closer contact with the activities of the College in the years that are to follow. If every "grad" gave that co-operation to College functions that his time and opportunities allowed, all obstacles to progress would be at once removed. To drop the altruistic frame of mind for a moment—the NEWS would be greatly aided by an expanded circulation among the members of the alumni. The younger members, especially, many of whom have been actively connected with the NEWS, must realize the earnest but futile effort the NEWS makes every year to reach this large field of prospective readers. Certainly there can be no better medium for getting a view of the activities and problems of the College than from those who are in close contact with them.

One thought remains uppermost. The Class of '29 has functioned well in its undergraduate days. May it perpetuate that fraternal co-operation by always remembering Xavier and Xavier men. Time can dim the lustre of '29's achievements, but time can also strengthen the spirit that gave birth to them.

A Greater News in September

The next issue of the Xavierian News will appear about the middle of September. In the meantime, the members of the staff will have an opportunity to consider what mistakes they have made and to plan a better and more interesting journal for next year. Relieved from the pressure of publication and standing at a distance, they will see new angles of situations which were obscured by their very proximity.

The enlarged policy of the News will be the goal of next year's efforts. Improvement in make-up and content will continue to be worked for, just as former staffs have built upon the efforts of their predecessors. A third ambition is taking root—to increase the number of NEWS readers among the student-body. That there has been neglect (on the part of the student-body) in this regard has been shown in more than one instance in the past. It is important that the student-publication reach all the students every week. No effort will be spared on the part of the NEWS to "come half way."

Non-staff contributions are again solicited for next year's paper. Since the establishment of a course in Journalism, the NEWS has taken on a valuable significance as a laboratory for the members of the Journalism classes. Several men will be added to the staff in September. This should be of special interest to the members of the Freshman Class.

We have confidence in our plans, and, above all, conditions as we see them in 1929-30, will be favorable to them. We bid adieu to our faithful readers for a short three months, and promise them unflagging effort in behalf of the News' program for a greater St. Xavier.

BETTER ADJUDGED LOSER

Bob Beirne, Liberal Arts senior, was awarded the decision of the Literati who served as judges in the News essay contest announced last week. In plain words, Beirne in the opinion of the judges merited the distinction of losing the $500. With permission of the copywriters owners we reprint the losing essay:

WHAT COLLEGE HAS GOT OUT OF ME $150

The choice was made by taking into consideration neatness, conciseness, brevity, euphony, clarity, construction and brevity. All those objecting to the decision will please remain standing in the rear of the room.

Now we was aesthetic and disquieted upon a subject that hitherto has not been broached in this department, and one which we feel sure will strike a responsive chord in even the most sensitive of readers.

We heard it said somewhere that Music Hath Charms and in the interest of science we set out either to prove or to disprove the allegation. We ended by proving it to the satisfaction of all concerned. Here is the indisputable evidence:

One day we were riding to town on a crowded street car when of a sudden a brass band struck up the martial strains of our national Anst Hymn. Immediately a white haired old lady with a bluish tint to her face grasped her crutches, got up, and landed us her seat. That in itself is no uncommon occurrence, but the remarkable part of the episode is that previous to the music she had remained seated. Impervious to the fact that we had been reading a book and were tired. Too, when the last note of the air had died away on the breeze she obviously repented of the kindly feeling and sought to recover the seat by glaring us in an intimidating manner. She even tried to tell us where to get off, but to no avail, for we rode two blocks further where the conductor concurred with her in her opinion.

Another instance which will illustrate the power of music is the following:

Not long ago we were seated in the A-lane in the ballroom row when a dazzling queen stalked out upon the stage. She looked at us without any visible palpitation of the heart. Then the music started, commenced or began. Believe it or no, but this time on finding us she burst into song, singing "My Man." We have every reason to suppose that had not the music started she would never have had the courage—others have not.

Yet a third substantiation: Once we were standing on the edge of a sticky floor talking to a shy, demure girl. (No music going). An orchestra whose members were disguised as psychopathic patients commenced to play. Strange as it may seem, that girl was

SENIORS GIVE LAMPS

Gift of the class of 1929 of the College of Liberal Arts to St. Xavier College will be two bronze lamp posts. The senior committee in charge of the selection of the posts is E. Whit Russell and Anthony T. Deedens. The lamps will be erected before the main entrance to Alumni Hall.

Rev. Hubert F. Breckman, S. J., President of St. Xavier College, is on a business trip East. During his absence he will visit Rochester, Buffalo, Toronto, Detroit, and Cleveland. He will serve as an examiner for the Catholic Educational Association at an inspection of Holyroth College, Rochester, N. Y.

Following the lead of several other institutions of higher learning, Oberlin has abolished her letter grading system, and now the only marks given are "Pass" or "Fail."

Students at North Carolina State, must pay fifty cents for each class they eat.

So carried away that she grabbed me about the neck and dragged us about upon that slick floor. Dear reader, can you beat that, and can you deny that she would never have done such things had there been no music?

And then some admirer of Orpheus called us a damned lye. When we spoke good-bye till next September with the parting intonation to wait till then to buy thermometers, for it is rumored that they are sometimes higher in the summer time.

ROGER BACON CRUSHED

X AVENGES EARLY DEFEAT

STEINKAMP GETS 2 HOMERS

By Don Dixon.

In an important Greater Cincinnati League Contest at Deer Creek, Tuesday afternoon, St. Xavier Blue Sox overcame Roger Bacon Spartans, 18-4. The big bats wielded by the downtown team proved the undoing of the Spartans, a total of 17 being registered by Coach Savage's men. Xavier had two fat rounds, tallying 6 times in the third frame and adding 7 more in the sixth. Captain Steinkamp led his sluggers at the plate, connecting for 6 hits out of 8 attempts, two of which were lovely home runs.

Belmesche and Joseph each got 2 out of 4. "Little Joe" furnished the fielding feature by handling several hot chances at second. "Wh. Hughes" hit. Belmesche held the Bacon hitters in check at every stage, only 6 hits being chalked off his delivery.

TONIGHT'S THE NIGHT

ALL ARRANGEMENTS MADE

JUNIORS, SENIORS TO FEAST

By John Brink

The stage is all set for the Junior Senior Banquet. Kevin De Bruh, chairman, has been elected toastmaster by the committee. The menu which was submitted by the officials of the Cincinnati Club, was decided upon and everyone may rest assured that they will certainly get a fine dinner for their money. Several speakers will augment the banquet with their timely or witty remarks. The Junior and Senior classes had a great deal of fun last week writing parodies on modern songs, to be sung at the banquet. This song affair was one of the highly successful points of last year's banquet and so it will be incorporated in the program this evening. Another feature of the banquet will be the musical program which the committee is having printed for the convenience of those present. It will be noticed that the main line on the front page of this program, will be arranged in such a way as to give it climax. (Look that one up in your Tanager.) Any Junior or Senior who misses this affair, will certainly regret it later on so remember be at the Cincinnati Club tonight at 8:30 sharp.

FRESHMEN

PRESENT COMIC PLAY

FOR 8TH GRADE PUPILS

On last Friday, May 24, the Freshmen, under the direction of Mr. Edward C. Roth, presented a two-act farce, entitled "Winning An Heiress." The play was given for pupils in the 8th grade of various Parochial schools throughout the city. The play dealt mainly with the efforts of three young men to attract the attentions of an heiress. The heiress in the end turns out to be one of their gentleman friends, John Reiney. Charles McDowell, and Edward Harper take the parts of Ben Barrow, Henry Hardup, and Sam Snow, respectively. They are the amorous young men who are to anxiously stand in with the heiress. Richard Woods and George Dolkenmayer are Andrew Adams and Neddy Nally in the first act, while in the second they are disguised as the heiress' aunt, and the heiress herself. Robert Adams is a highly excitable and extremely vicious fellow named Israel Cohen. Leo Notal, in reality the janitor, furnishes many laughs in the role of Jimmy Cripple, when he tries to appear as highly respectable and polished butler.

Besides the play itself there were several other features. John O'Hara gave a speech of welcome. Anthony Michel recited that humorous education piece, "Betty At The Baseball Game." Another humorous recitation, "Mr. Brown Gets A Heiress," was given by Joseph Guttenmayer. The band and the orchestra were both on hand with several rousing selections.

A CORRECTION

In last week's issue of the Xavierian News, it was stated on this page that the High School Commencement Exercises would be held on June 14, 1928. This was an error. The St. Xavier High School Commencement Exercises will be held in the New Field House, at Corcoran Field, on Wednesday June 12, 1928, not Friday, June 14.

SENIOR SODALITY CLOSES

On Monday, May 29, The Senior Sodality held their last meeting of the year. Fr. Lilly, Moderator, gave a short farewell talk. He told the Sodality to always have great devotion to the Blessed Virgin for it is to her whom we must turn in later years. He said that it was a good custom to always carry a rosary. He reminded the members of their pledge to say one decade of the Rosary every day during the month of May in honor of the Blessed Virgin; that they should renew their intention if they had broken it, and persevere in it if not. He also mentioned that Fr. Morgan, S. J., of St. Xavier College, was going to Chicago this summer with a group of College men, to attend the Students' Spiritual Council Convention. If any high school student wished to attend, he may accompany the St. Xavier delegation with Fr. Morgan. All who intend to go should give their names to Jack Conway, Prefect of St. Sodality, and he will inform them of the particulars of the trip, such as rates, expenses, dates, etc. Prayers and a hymn to the Blessed Virgin closed the meeting.

GOLF TEAM

The X High Golf team which is a new organization at St. X. this year, has been showing up very well in all its matches so far. They played a tight match with the powerful Western Hills team and came out with a 6 to 6 tie. They were to play a game with Elder High but it was called off at the last moment. Their next feat was a victory over the representative team of Covington High school. They took this match without any difficulty at all by a score of 12 to 0. They are to play this team once more before the season is over. This is a remarkable showing for a team in its first year, to put up a good fight and even beat teams that have several seasons experience behind them. Let us hope that this movement will not die out with the passing of the present school year, but that the members of the present team will take it upon themselves to arouse interest again next year, and build up a stronger and better team even than we now have.

ELDER GAME ALL WET

Last Friday, May 24, St. Xavier was supposed to play Elder High in a baseball game at Price Hill. The afternoon drizzled dark and threatening. But it was just uncertain enough to persuade about 10 St. X. toolsters to make the trip. way up on that plateau, known as Price Hill, (elevation above Fountain Square, approximately 100 feet). Both teams waited some good time practicing, and just as soon as the game started, it began to sprinkle lightly. Elder was first at bat, and it could easily be seen that they were desperate. They swung their bats viciously, but most of the time they were hitting hot liners into Steinkamp's catcher's mitt. They might have even scored some runs, if they hadn't made three outs before their men could get around the bases. As soon as it was Xavier's turn to bat, it began to rain so hard that both teams took refuge in the sheltered grandstand. No sooner were they firmly ensconced in the grandstand, than it stopped raining. So out they piled again to resume hostilities. Our team was allowed to make their three outs, and Elder had no more than come up to bat again, when a terrific downpour, chased the teams away. This was rather what promised to be an exciting ballgame. It will be played off this coming Monday, June 3, at Elder High School.

TRACE POPE'S LIFE

A large host of undergraduates viewed an illustrated lecture on the life of Pope Pius XI given by Dr. Paul J. Menge, professor of German, at room 100 Friday. The lecture gave an insight into the program offered by the student tour of Germany this summer. James Shea, '35, aided Dr. Menge in the preparation of the lecture. All interested in the trip should confer with Dr. Menge.

As the newest fad at the University of Georgia, students on the campus are indulging in onion eating parties. Evidently none but the strong deserve the fad.

Engineering student at the University of South Dakota flies to the school from his home sixty miles away, and back that evening. A regular fly-by-night, and we'll bet the co-eds don't walk home.

William Hartigan, '35, is improving at General Hospital from a recent illness.

The COLLEGE

—a BLUE suit by MIDDISHADE

YOUR degree from OF St. X. should help you to appreciate the degree of smartness in Middishade's new blue suit. The "class" of its rich shade of blue, its two-button collegiate cut, are a smart lesson in style. The "College" will respond to your credit at graduation and prove an appropriate background for your personality long, long, afterwards. Why not come in and try it on?

By WILLIAM J. WISE

Since the silver screen has waxed eloquent in a photographic way, we poor mortals of the consuming public have been plagued with movies representative of the gay nineties, when villains wore flowing mustaches and hip boots, and heroines invariably swooned into the arms of the hero in the final act. Drama of this period recalls the pioneer efforts of the movie producers, which depicted whooping cowboys on smoking steeds reeling alongside a roaring locomotive.

Sometimes these hardy westerners were grim in their determination to rob, while on other occasions they strove with all their might and main to prevent an imminent train wreck. Then there were also those court room scenes, intended to evoke streams of fresh salty tears from the audience. As time moved on, the movies, like all other industries, progressed and developed into a gigantic business enterprise with no meager social potentiality. This progression continued to such a point that occasionally an isolated movie of thoroughly good quality was actually presented to the great American public. After being lampooned for so long with corroding celluloid projections, audiences raged in utter astonishment at a picture which did not lend itself to the conventional formula. Bewilderment gave way to perplexity which in turn resulted in a swiftest demise.

"Talkies"

Within the past year the "talkies" have taken the country by storm, much after the fashion of pacifism. By attaching an apparatus, similar to the old fashioned gramophone, which reproduces sound just about as successfully, the movie magnates have turned for themselves a niche in the hearts of most habitual movie fans.

There are, however, several weighty reasons why talking pictures are a decided retrogression rather than a progression. First and foremost, it is recalled with funeral sadness that in the good old days it was quite possible, even pleasant to drift off into the narcotic regions of slumber, if the show did not particularly appeal to the individual. In addition to that, the accompanying music made the task all the easier, and often acted as a sedative for tired nerves.

As matters now stand, the poorly camouflaged dialogue of the talking pictures prevent this restful repose, and actually drives spectators from the theater with that irritated feeling which follows upon a persistently harsh grating sound. Gone are the days when Xaverians could slumber into the cinema palaces, taking advantage of the afternoon rates, see the show through once, and then placidly regain the sleep which they lost in the snoring classes.

Silence Best

Optimists are insistent in reiterating the disreputable aphorism that "every cloud has a silver lining", at any rate there is a refreshing solution to the present difficulty. Incidentally the solution is economical as well. Instead of patronizing the Ophiot, it is infinitely more enjoyable to frequent Cincinnati's foremost ten-cent theater, situated on Vine street between Fifth and Sixth. It has that greatest of all qualities (at least where movies are concerned) namely, silence. It has been suggested that Xavier students join together into a mythical society which has for its avowed purpose an active hostility and resentment towards talking pictures.

SHUT-OUT

Hurled By Ambrose Pullman

Over Centre College; Each Team Registers Five Hits; Game Closes Home Season.

Playing their best game of the year the St. Xavier College baseball team won over Centre College by a 5 to 0 count at Deery Creek Commons grounds last Saturday. The game completed the St. Xavier home sport program for this year.

Both pitchers were in rare form. Ambrose Pullman hurled the Musketeers in the first shut-out won by St. Xavier in two seasons of play. Chas. Shearer, football star, did the pitching for Centre.

Each pitcher allowed five safe blows. Pullman was the more reliable in the pinches. The game marked the return to form of the St. Xavier catchers, who showed promise in the early season.

St. Xavier's first run came in the sixth inning when Bill Collins singled, went to second on Wilson's walk and scored on Captain Droege's single to center.

The second resulted from Bob Kenney's double to left field in the eighth inning, followed by several infield outs and then scored on Rander's second hit of the day to center.

Pullman was rarely in trouble and had things his own way throughout. Hitting of Captain Rander and outfield play of Kenney Schaefer sparked for the Musketeers.

The final game on the Musketeers' schedule will be played at the University of Dayton grounds June 14.
